

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Dean Lindstrom was the first director of Lincoln Union Educational Cooperative in 1979, which then became Southeast Area Cooperative, located in Beresford, and will be retiring on May 5, 2011; and,

Whereas, Dean has provided special educational expertise and guidance to the schools and school staff in southeast South Dakota for 32 years, developing policy and procedure, and has ensured that school districts were following state and federal guidelines; and ; and,

Whereas, Dean kept abreast of legal and ethical implications for districts and families, and consulted with school districts about special education issues; and,

Whereas, Dean has been involved with the Southeast Interactive Long Distance Learning project, National Science Foundation project, and other projects; and,

Whereas, Dean was selected as South Dakota Special Education Administrator of the Year, and has been active in South Dakota Council of Administrators of Special Education, and many other organizations:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 5, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him a fulfilling and happy retirement.

DEAN LINDSTROM DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eleventh Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard
Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Jason M. Gant
Jason M. Gant, Secretary of State